

A SYMPOSIUM OF THE 2016 NORTH AMERICAN CONGRESS FOR CONSERVATION BIOLOGY
LOOKING BACK, LOOKING FORWARD:

TOPICS IN INDIGENOUS CONSERVATION

ORGANIZERS

EDITH LEOSO, Bad River Ojibwe Tribal Historic Preservation Officer

JESSIE CONAWAY, PHD, UW Madison Nelson Institute for Environmental Studies

DOUG CLARK, PHD, University of Saskatchewan

SCHEDULE

TUESDAY JULY 19TH

Welcome: Thundercloud Singers, Ho Chunk Nation, 740 am
ALL DAY SYMPOSIUM FEATURING THREE SESSIONS

Session 1: Collaborative Process for Working Across Cultural Boundaries, 8am – 10am

Session 2: Policy Environments in Indigenous Conservation Work, 1:30pm – 3:30pm

Session 3: Indigenizing STEM Education, 4pm – 6pm

TUESDAY JULY 19TH EVENING ACTIVITY:

Story Collider Live Show featuring Roberta Hill, Oneida Tribe of Wisconsin, UW Madison Faculty. 7pm. WI Inst for Discovery

LOCATION

Madison, Wisconsin, US. Monona Terrace Convention Center, Hall of Ideas I <http://www.mononaterrace.com/>

Artwork by Ed Wiggins

CONFERENCE WEBSITE

<http://www.scbnacongress.org/>

There is a fee to register for the conference.

CONTACT Jessie Conaway jessie.conaway@wisc.edu

NELSON
INSTITUTE FOR
Environmental Studies
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON